

Teen Suicide Unspeakable Words

There is Hope

Suicide Awareness Talk for Parents and interested Adults

Wednesday October 4th, 6:30-8:00pm

St. Jude Thaddeus Church 614 Pine St. Essexville Mi.

Barb Smith from Survivors of Suicide will review warning signs and identify risk factors associated with suicide. It is our hope when you leave this presentation you will be better able to recognize individuals who may be thinking about suicide and feel confident responding in an effective way, and in knowing where to find helpful resources

Barb is the Executive Director of Survivors on Suicide, professional speaker and advocate for suicide prevention, intervention, and aftercare. She brings with her 26 years of both professional and personal experiences working locally and nationally.

Register by September 29th

Call: 989-894-2701 Ext. 106